POWER. PLAY. ON YOUR TERMS.

The Relationship Operating Layer for the dynamic you actually have.

Generic apps assume a generic dynamic.

Every relationship app promises connection, but most just give you a swipe deck and a prayer.

For adults who want an intentional, structured, and informed way to manage power-exchange dynamics, the current landscape is broken.

bdXm is built differently—centered on consent, communication, and clarity.

The category was missing. So we built it.

	Generic Dating Apps	Legacy Tracker Apps	bdXm
Matching Engine	Nearest Zip Code & Photo Grid	None (Bring Your Own Partner)	Psychological Compatibility & Dynamic Alignment
Core Focus	Initial Discovery	Clunky Checklists & Spreadsheets	One Continuous Ecosystem
Psychological Depth	Zero	Zero	The Compass Data Engine

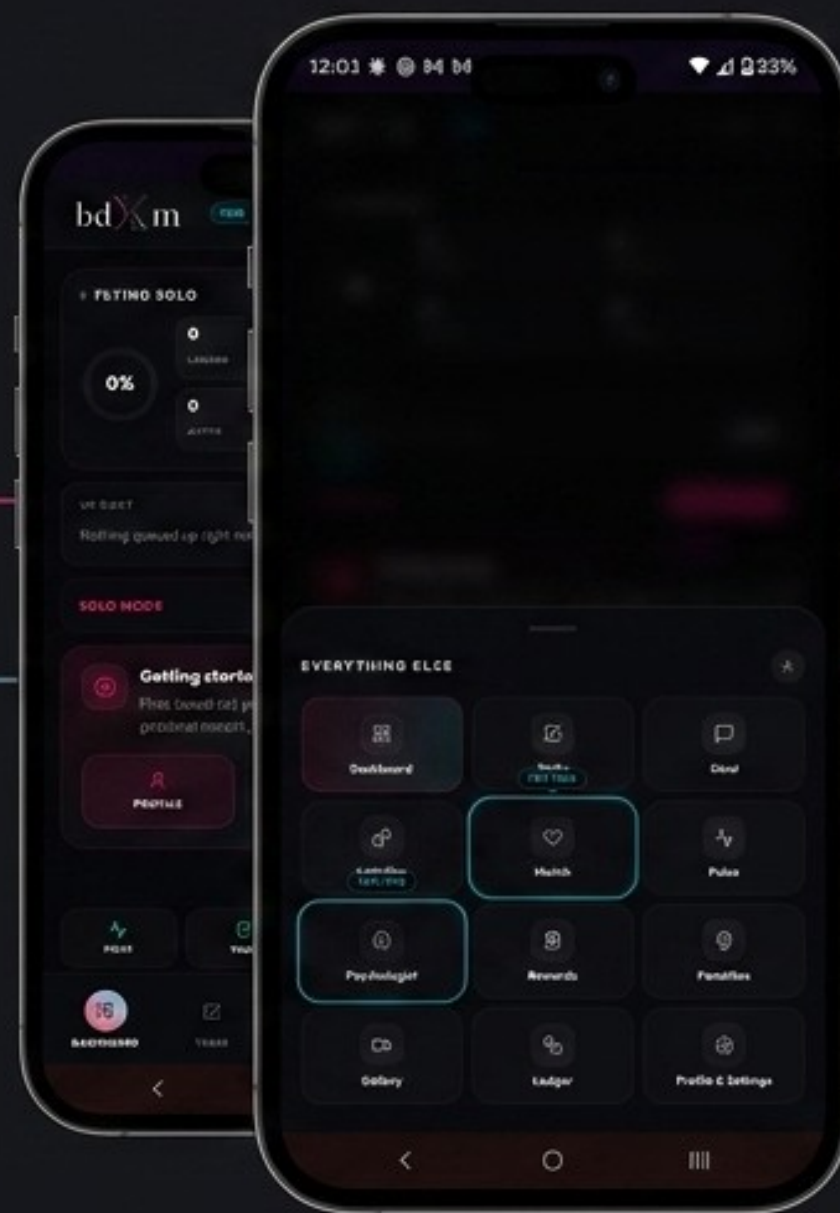

One App. Every Part of the Dynamic.

Discovery:

Compatibility-driven matching.

Insight:

Real-time intimacy radar and quizzes.

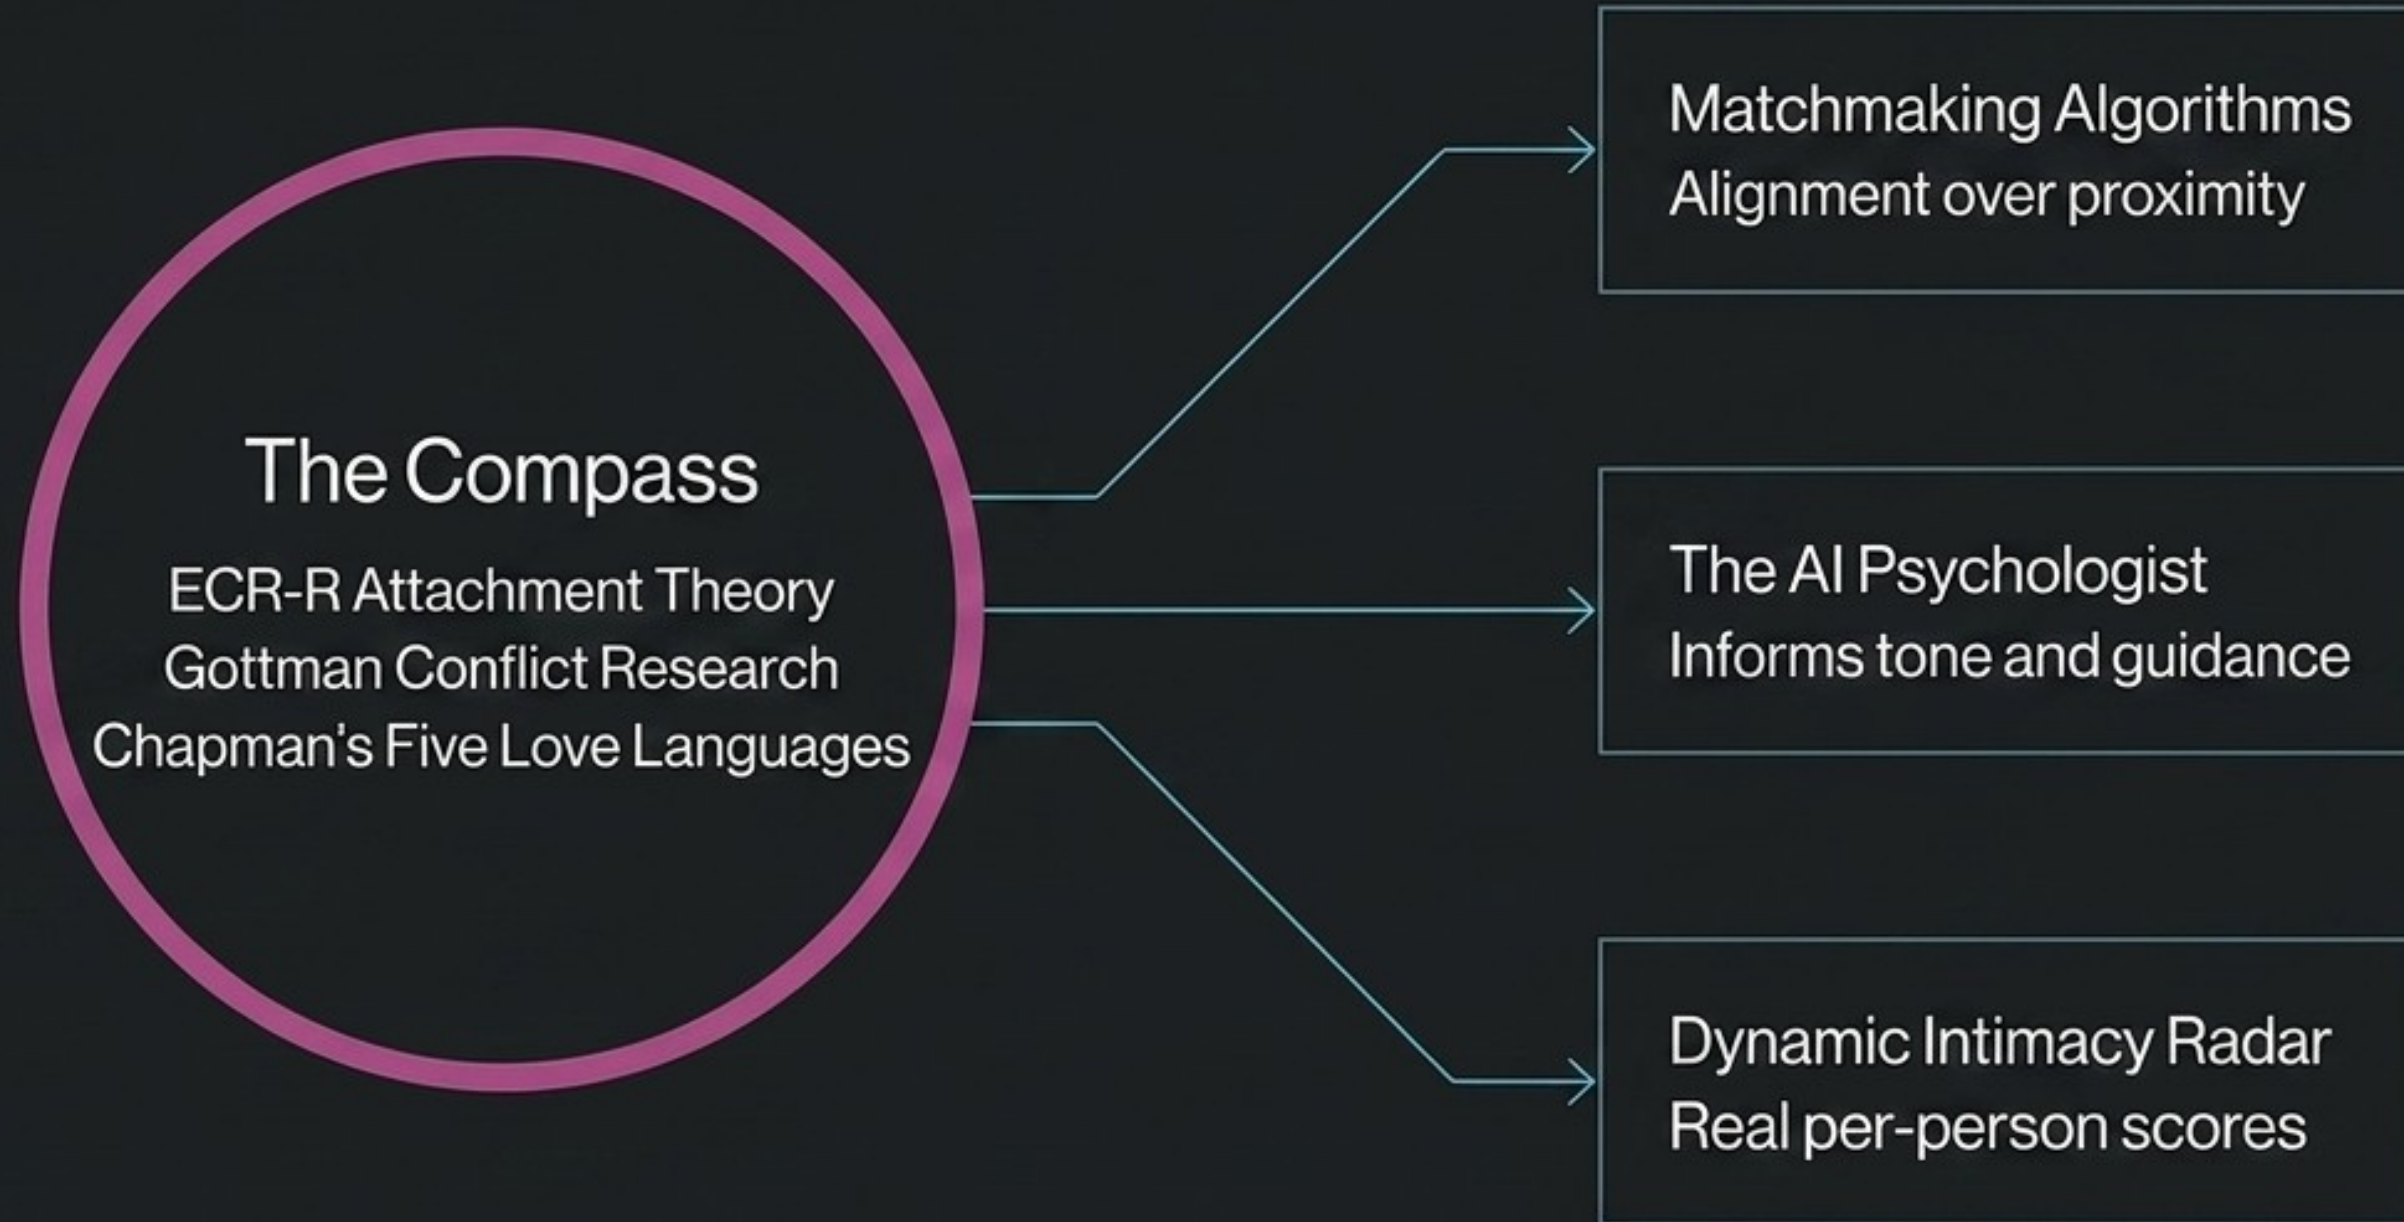

Structure:

Tasks, ledgers, and rewards.

Support:

Context-aware AI relationship counsel.

The Compass: The Data Engine Powering Connection

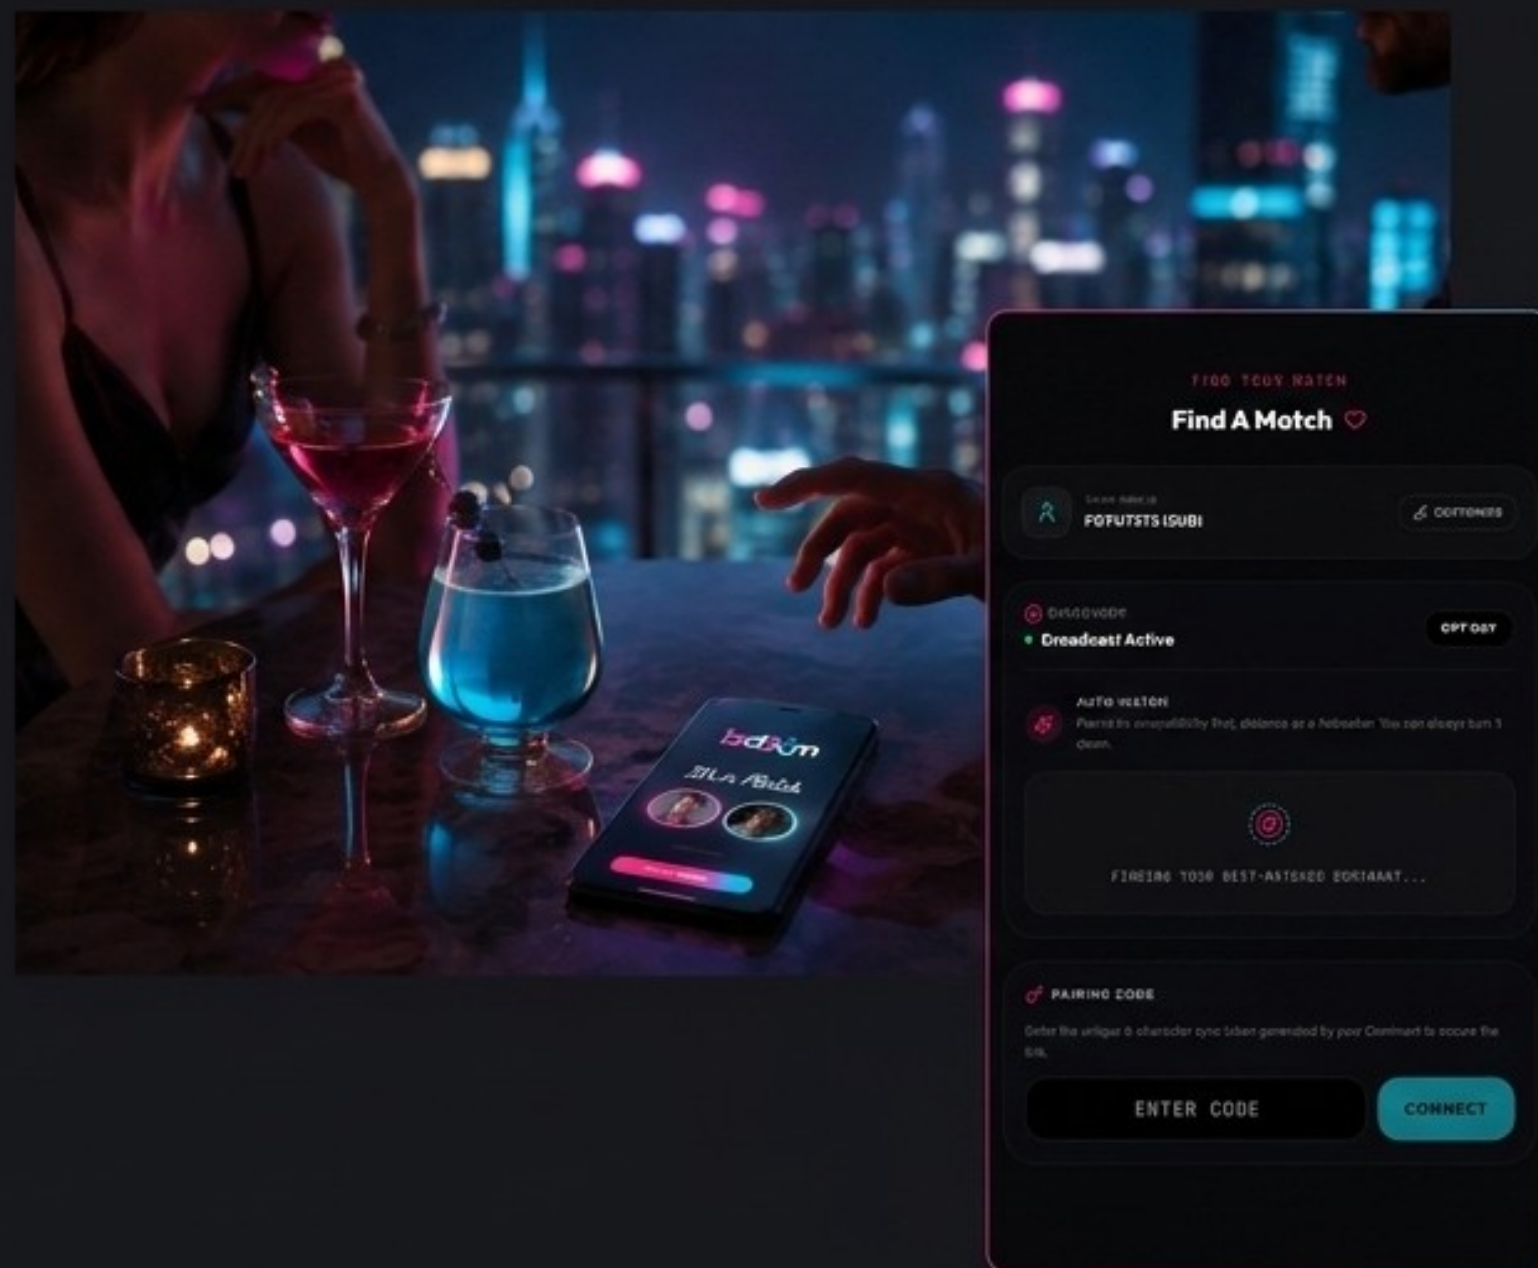

Matched by Compatibility. Not Proximity.

Blind, Data-Driven Matching: Scores candidates on attachment compatibility, conflict-style risk flags, and aftercare overlap.

Plain-Language Summaries: Translates complex psychological alignment into an immediate, readable compatibility summary.

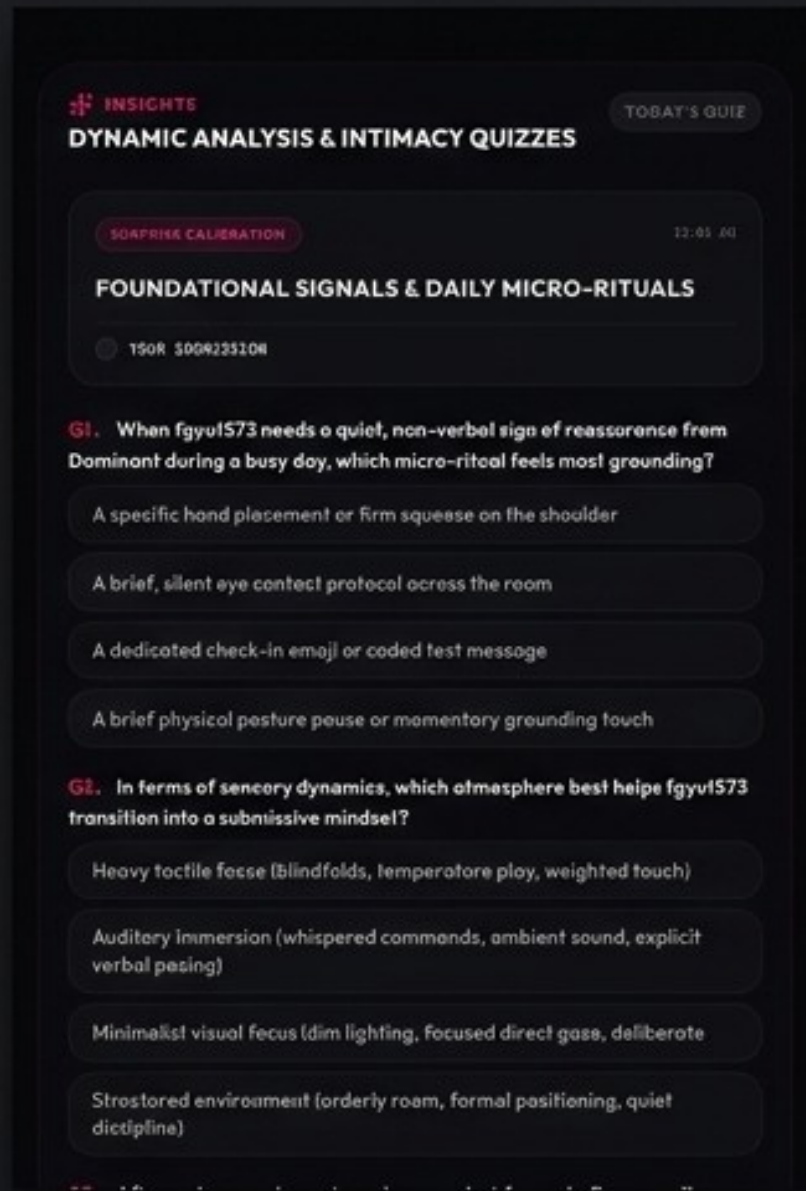

Direct Invite Option: Already have a partner? Bypass discovery and link instantly via a 6-character pairing code.

Structure Without the Startup Tax.

See Your Dynamic. Literally.

Dynamic Intimacy Radar

Real per-person scores across Power Alignment, Sensory Play, and Emotional Trust, calculated from your actual data—not placeholders.

Surprise Calibration

A genuinely daily AI-generated quiz with adaptive topic rotation to keep connection fresh.

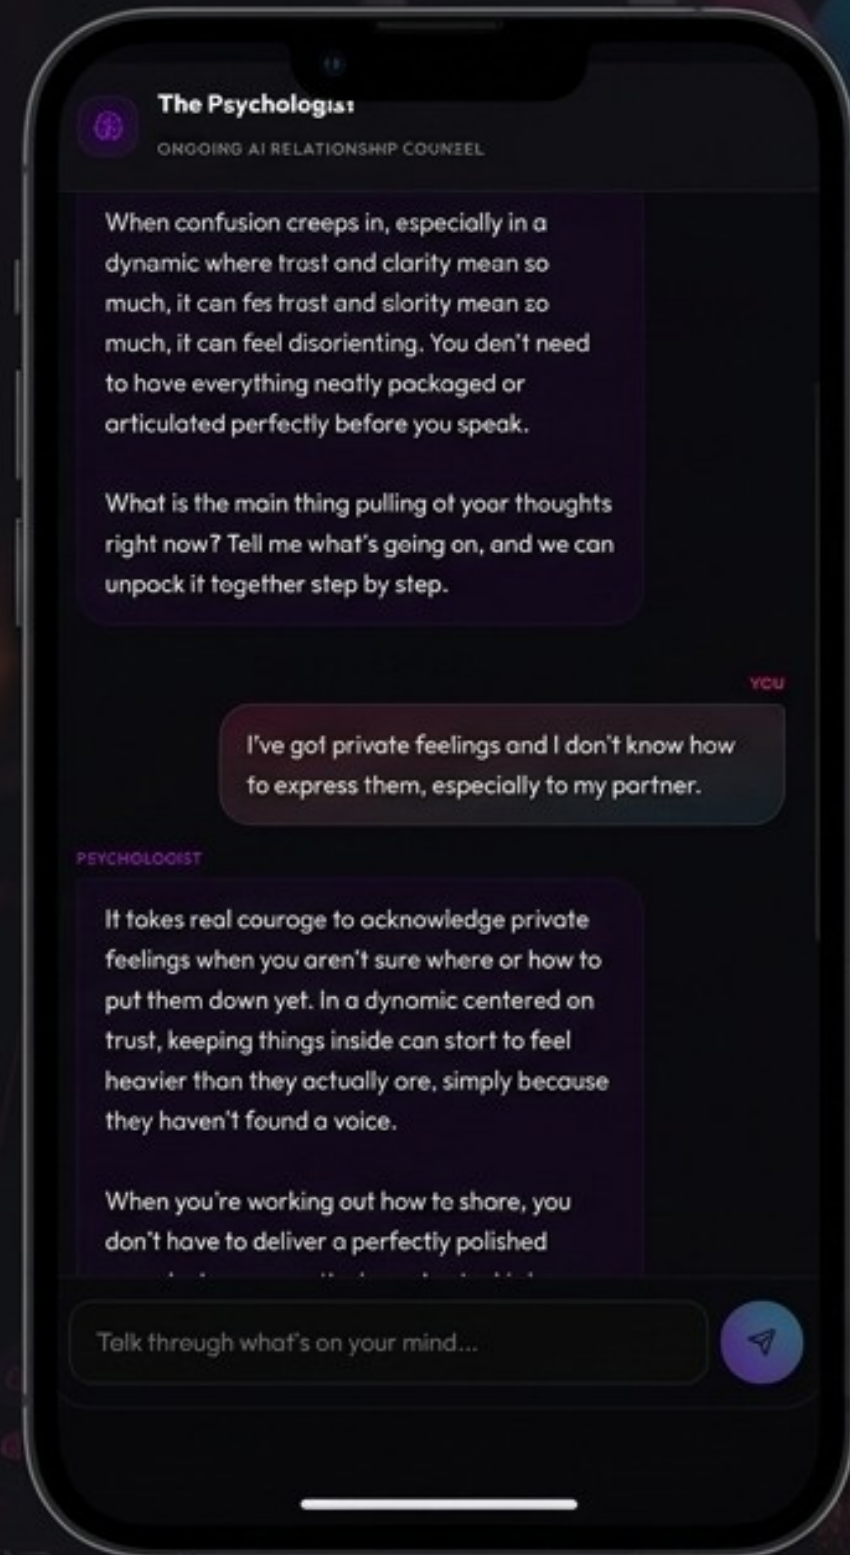

The Roleplay Wheel

Spontaneous scenario prompts for when you want to bypass the structure and just play.

Your Relationship Has a Therapist Now.

“The Psychologist is an ongoing AI relationship counselor with persistent conversation history.”

The Difference: It is context-aware. It quietly uses your Compass data and ledger activity to inform its tone and advice. No generic chatbot scripts—just a steady, perceptive presence available without judgment.

The Foundation is Safety and Presence.

The Pulse

A dedicated space for vitals, streaks, and a heartbeat/check-in ping to maintain a compact sense of connection.

Clear Boundaries

Safeword display with a trigger/clear flow and explicit hard-limits tracking built directly into the profile.

Private Shared Space

Real-time chat, shared media galleries, and live location sharing—all kept strictly between you and your partner.

One Continuous Context.

The true power of bdXm is that it eliminates the need to jump between dating apps, task spreadsheets, and external chat platforms. The exact same Compass data that matches you also influences your AI counselor. Your daily tasks influence your intimacy radar. It is one holistic environment built around a single, continuous relationship context.
